

TSP KICKS OFF 21st BIRTHDAY YEAR IN STYLE WITH LATEST WOMEN IN TRAVEL EVENT

The Saltmarsh Partnership is celebrating its 21st birthday this year - and TSP's girls got the party started at our latest Women In Travel event.

They were joined at the Waterloo Brasserie in London in February by travel journalists and representatives of tourist boards, airlines, accommodation providers and tour operators for an evening of socialising and travel industry gossip.

Popularly known as 'WIT', Women In Travel was introduced by The Saltmarsh Partnership in 2007 as an informal get-together of influential ladies from the media and travel industry. Now held quarterly, it continues to thrive, with the February 2011 event attracting more than 50 attendees.

Founded by former Travel Trade Gazette journalist Geoff Saltmarsh in 1990, The Saltmarsh Partnership one of the UK's leading travel and tourism PR consultancies, with dedicated travel representation and online divisions adding to its offering.

We're planning further events this year to celebrate our 21st birthday - watch this space....!
