Get hooked on Pembrokeshire Fish Week with Celtic Haven

London, 7th June 2010: Food fans looking to catch a great deal on accommodation during Pembrokeshire Fish Week can look to luxury self-catering cottage resort Celtic Haven, which is offering short breaks during the festival from as little as £149 per person. The price is based on a three or four-night stay and also includes a two-course evening meal and a 25-minute spa treatment.

Pembrokeshire Fish Week this year runs from the 26th June – 4th July 2010, offering visitors the opportunity to sample marine delights from across the county. Now in its 11th year, the festival regularly attracts up to 25,000 visitors and hosts activities and events throughout the week including cookery demonstrations, master classes and tastings with celebrity chefs, fishing and boat trips and children's workshops.

There will also be the opportunity to sample and buy locally caught fish and shellfish, such as crab, lobster, mackerel and turbot, fresh from the Pembrokeshire coast.

Celtic Haven is located inside the Pembrokeshire National Park and boasts 26 cottages and houses sleeping from two to twelve people. Prices start from as little as £149 per person during Pembrokeshire Fish Week for either a three night weekend break (Friday – Monday) or a four night midweek stay (Monday – Friday), based on double occupancy.

The price also includes a 25-minute treatment in the resort's spa, the only Elemis Premier Spa in West Wales, as well as a two-course meal in Waves Italian influenced bar and restaurant. Restaurant Manager and Head Chef David Zanato, who has worked as Head Chef at London's Park Tower Casino and The Royal Thames Yacht Club in Knightsbridge, will be offering guests locally sourced food, including fresh seafood, throughout Pembrokeshire Fish Week.

Free use of all the resort's leisure facilities, including sauna, gym, indoor swimming pool, all-weather tennis courts and the nine-hole headland golf course, is also included in the cost of the stay.

Ends
