

New weekly flights to Aruba from Manchester for summer 2010

Sun-seekers from north-west England can now discover the Dutch Caribbean island of Aruba right from their doorstep with the introduction of convenient new weekly direct flights from May 2010.

Thomson Airways will operate the new weekly service to Aruba from Manchester on Fridays from May 7 – October 23, replacing the existing fortnightly service.

This flight is in addition to the weekly direct Gatwick service, which was introduced for summer 2009 and will depart on Saturdays from May 1 – October 23, 2010.

The London Gatwick and Manchester flights are available for travellers booking their Aruba holiday with Thomson Faraway Shores, Thomson Platinum Collection, Thomson Weddings, Thomson Chic & Unique, Thomson A La Carte and First Choice Tropical, First Choice Premier and First Choice Wedding brochures.

Joanna Walding, UK Director for the Aruba Tourism Authority commented; "We are delighted with the news of the new summer weekly charter from Manchester. Aruba is now more accessible than ever and the weekly departures will allow travellers from the Manchester region more flexibility in their holiday choice."

First Choice is offering seven nights at the Tamarijn Aruba All-Inclusive from £1145 per person, based on two adults sharing, flying from Manchester on May 7, 2010. To find out more, call First Choice on 0871 664 9019, or book online at www.firstchoice.co.uk/aruba

For more information on Aruba visit www.aruba.com

About Aruba

Just 15 miles from South America, Aruba offers idyllic beaches in the south, rugged cliffs and black pebbles in the north, and an arid interior of red rocks and cacti. No rainy season, constant sun and cooling trade winds offer perfect holiday conditions all year round. www.aruba.com

For further media information contact:

The Saltmarsh Partnership

Tel: 020 7928 1600

Clair Horwood: clair@saltmarshpr.co.uk