Bank Holiday bargains at Pembrokeshire's Celtic Haven: 30 per cent discount on self-catering cottages

London, 26 July 2010: Bag a Bank Holiday bargain with Celtic Haven, the most complete resort in Wales, which is offering up to 30 per cent off holidays over the long August weekend.

For one week holidays running from Saturday, August 28 to Friday, September 3, the Pembrokeshire resort is offering 30 per cent off standard rates for luxury three-bedroom cottages. That puts the price at £950 instead of £1,375 – and means a one-week holiday for £158.34 per person, assuming six share the property.

Discounts are also available on two-bedroom and one-bedroom cottages – 25 and 20 per cent respectively. This makes a one-week stay in a two-bedroom £750 (instead of £995) and £515 in a one-bedroom cottage (against £640).

Bank Holiday is Monday, August 30, making Celtic Haven an ideal late summer destination taking in the weekend, with special rates also available for short breaks running from Saturday, August 28 to Tuesday, August 31.

Three-night breaks are priced at £712 for a three-bedroom cottage; £562 for two-bedroom; £386 for one-bedroom.

Celtic Haven is located inside the Pembrokeshire National Park and boasts 26 cottages and houses sleeping from two to 12.

Celtic Haven also has the only Elemis Premier Spa in West Wales. Dining options include the resort's own Waves Italian-influenced bar and restaurant.

Free use of all the resort's leisure facilities, including sauna, gym, indoor swimming pool, all-weather tennis courts and the nine-hole headland golf course, is also included in the cost of the August stays.
