

Save 55 per cent on a luxury cottage break at Celtic Haven this May and you can even take the dog!

London, 3 May 2011- Escape to the Pembrokeshire coast for a cottage break at Celtic Haven for just £159 per person for a three night weekend or a four night midweek break until May 23. This is an ideal getaway for couples and friends who would like a relaxing break before the school holidays.

Celtic Haven's 26 cottages lie within the stunning Pembrokeshire Coast National Park and sleep from two to 12 people. All guests have free use of the resort's sauna, hot tub, indoor swimming pool and golf course, and can indulge in a treatment or two at its Elemis Premier Spa. There is also the Italian influenced Waves bar & restaurant.

The price of £159 per person is based on two people sharing and includes a £20 per person voucher to be used at Waves and a £30 voucher towards spa treatments at the Elemis Premier Spa. Children aged three or over cost £99, children under two are free and pets are welcome for £20 per pet. All properties have fully equipped kitchens including dishwashers, washing machines, TV and DVD player and central heating.

From the cottage doorstep, guests can enjoy miles of headland walks and the sandy Lydstep Beach which is a few minutes walk away. Whale and dolphin watching tours, Venture Jet boat rides and surfing lessons in the Atlantic's waves are also available nearby.

The offshore island of Caldey, which can be seen from Celtic Haven, has just reopened for the summer. Guests can visit the island by a 20 minute boat ride and spend the day experiencing the island which is inhabited by a community of monks.
