

'£1 deal' for a Pembrokeshire cottage next to award winning beaches, castles and natural attractions

4 October 2011, London: Luxury self-catering cottage resort, Celtic Haven, lies in the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park near the county's best beaches, castles and natural attractions. Those wishing to explore Pembrokeshire can take advantage of Celtic Haven's great value deal; a three night stay for two for £178 per person with a dinner and spa treatment for just £1 extra per person. Additionally, there is a free fourth night if the break is taken midweek.

The best of Pembrokeshire's landscape can be experienced straight from Celtic Haven's cottages on the Celtic Mile walking path or the Pembrokeshire Coast National Trail which runs past its cottages. The 186 mile trail offers a varied landscape of steep limestone cliffs, red sandstone bays, volcanic headlands, flooded glacial valleys and spectacular sea views.

Along the trail visitors will be able to see Tenby Castle ruins and Manorbier Castle which are just two of 51 forts and castles to visit in Pembrokeshire. The 13th century Tenby Castle is perched on a hilltop and surrounded by the sea and the 800 year old Manorbier Castle is just a mile from Celtic Haven and overlooks the beach.

From the clifftop walkers can head down to Pembrokeshire's award winning beaches. It has the most Blue Flag and Seaside Award beaches of any county in Britain and has 50 to choose from. The sandy Freshwater West beach is four miles from Celtic Haven and was used as the filming site for recent films Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows and Robin Hood (2010). Celtic Haven also has private access to Lydstep Beach, which is just a few minutes walk from the cottages.

Celtic Haven has 26 cottages, which sleep between two and 12 people, and is located on the coastline near Tenby. Guests have free access to the resort's headland golf course, indoor swimming pool, sauna, hot tub and fitness centre. The dinner included in the '£1 deal' is eaten at Celtic Haven's Waves Bar & Restaurant on the evening of arrival and the spa treatment is at its Elemis Premier Spa, which is one of only four in Wales.

Bookings can be made online at www.celtichaven.co.uk or on 01834 870000. The offer excludes October half term (22-28 October) and is valid for stays until 16 December.
