

Teenage holiday ideas from P&V

2 June 2009: European accommodation specialist P&V has announced its top properties for families with teenagers including self catering apartments for adventurous families in the Alps, a teen-friendly holiday village in the Ardèche and sporty breaks on the French Atlantic Coast. New for summer 2009, P&V is offering free children's clubs at family holiday villages and a 'Eurobuster' saving of at least 22% on holidays taken before November 2009.

P&V properties are family friendly and make an ideal base for a summer break, with a wide selection of children's activities for youngsters aged from three to 18 years old. Children's clubs for teenagers are broken down into two age groups: 13-15 year olds and 16-18 year olds with a range of activities and events tailored to each. Many P&V 'holiday village' properties also include a dedicated teenager-only zone known as 'The Spot' that features sofas, large screen televisions, DJ turntables and a dance floor.

Below we have listed P&V's top choices for holidays with teenagers. All properties are eligible for P&V's 'beat the Euro' discount. This deal has been introduced to offer the Euro-Sterling rate of 2008 when holidays were at least 22% cheaper than they are today. All properties are self-catering and come with a fully-fitted kitchen and living area. One-bedroom apartments include a double bedroom and a living area with pull out sofa bed.
